

Back and Paces-what's the connection?

December 1, 2017 McLaren Park

6pm-9.30pm

Official 2017 ESA coaches update

Dressage Judges re-accreditation workshop

Dressage Judges Sub Committee (DJSC) and the SA Coaching Committee are collaborating to bring this fantastic workshop and world-renowned expert to SA.

Martin will work with a selected group of riders to demonstrate key points and how they translate to the horses' movement/paces.

- Cost EA members $25
- Cost non EA members $35

The SA coaching committee and DJSC are keen to work together in order to provide high quality learning experiences, and as such this workshop represents the first of many such events.

Martin Plewa is one of the most highly qualified trainers to come to Australia. Successful international rider, trainer responsible for the German Eventing Team winning Gold, 1988 Olympic Games Seoul, Team Bronze in Barcelona 1992, & Team Bronze in 1994 World Equestrian Games, Hague. He has officiated around the world, including Olympic Games (President Ground Jury, Beijing, & Technical Delegate, London). Director of Westphalian Riding and Driving School Münster, where he educates professional & amateur trainers, riders, and officials. Co-author with Dr Wolfgang Holtzel, of the book 'Dressage Tips and Training Solutions'