

In association with Australian International 3 Day Event we present

AN EVENING WITH MARTIN PLEWA

Invitation for all involved in Dressage, Jumping & Eventing

How & Why Dressage Training Improves Every Discipline

November 30, 2018 McLaren Park Equestrian Centre

- Official 2017 ESA Coaches update
- Dressage Judges re-accreditation workshop

5.00pm Registration

5.30pm – 6.00pm EA Coaches Update

6.00pm – 9.30pm Discussion & Ridden Demonstrations

Martin will work with a selected group of riders to demonstrate key points and how they translate to the horses' movement/paces, including increasing suppleness through gymnastic pole exercises.

- Cost for all EA Coaches & Judges $20
 - Cost all other discipline attendees $30
- (Payment at the door on the night or via phone with credit card to Equestrian SA Office)

Catering: Catering at the venue, with pre-ordering available.

Pre-order Menu: ($12.50 each): chicken burger with chips, vegetarian frittata, mixed sushi, chicken tandoori salad.
Text order to Hannah at 0452 424 573 by Thursday night, with name and preferred pickup time (from 5.00pm)

About Martin:

Martin Plewa is one of the most highly qualified trainers to come to Australia. Successful international rider, trainer responsible for the German Eventing Team winning Gold, 1988 Olympic Games Seoul, Team Bronze in Barcelona 1992, & Team Bronze in 1994 World Equestrian Games, Hague.

He has officiated around the world, including Olympic Games (President Ground Jury, Beijing, & Technical Delegate, London). Director of Westphalian Riding and Driving School Münster. Martin has recently returned from the World Equestrian Games in Tryon USA where he Officiated in Eventing as Technical Delegate.

Enquiries: Equestrian SA Office 08 8391 0488 (for credit card payment via phone)

