About FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018

The FEI World Equestrian Games™ (WEG), which are administered by the Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI), the worldwide governing body of equestrian sport, is the major international championship event for the eight core equestrian disciplines of show jumping, dressage and para-equestrian dressage, eventing, driving, endurance, vaulting and reining.

The 2018 WEG has the potential to be the largest sporting event in North Carolina history with over $400 million dollars of projected economic impact and 500,000 spectators over the 13-day event in September 2018.

About Tryon International Equestrian Center

The Ultimate Equestrian Lifestyle Destination

Tryon International Equestrian Center (TIEC) at Tryon Resort, host of the FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018, is one of the world's premier equestrian lifestyle destinations. From carousel to competition, the mission of Tryon Resort is to celebrate the magic of the horse, grow equestrian sport, and increase access to this majestic animal.

With first-class facilities for hunter/jumper, dressage, and eventing competitions, the facility will soon accommodate all eight equestrian disciplines. Tryon Resort is a spring, summer and fall haven for equestrian competitors and enthusiasts, and a year-round destination for connoisseurs of diverse cuisine and shopping, lodging getaways, and family entertainment. Learn more at www.tryon.com.

Celebrate the Horse, Celebrate the Sport.

The legacy of horse and rider goes back to the beginning of time. All of our nations were discovered on the back of a horse and these amazing animals continue to provide livelihood, transportation, security, entertainment, friendship, therapy, and sport around the world, thus reinforcing the important role horses have played throughout history.

The 2018 WEG theme of “Celebrate the Horse, Celebrate the Sport” showcases the love of horses alongside the significance of the sport to bring added attention to equestrian sport and touch a broader audience of horse enthusiasts globally.
