

2022 Eventing Oceania Championships

Nominations for the Senior Rider Teams Event

Expressions of interest are currently being sought from Australian-based combinations qualified to enter CCI3* or above, to compete against New Zealand in the Oceania Team Championships at Melbourne, 9 - 13 June 2022. Two teams of 4 riders and horses plus 2 reserves will be selected for this competition. It is not a requirement to hold an MER at CCI4*-L level, only to be qualified for CCI4*-L.

Applications are to be submitted to Dianne Saunders di.saunders@equestrian.org.au in writing by 5pm Friday 8 April 2022, by using the form following.

A requirement for selection on the Oceania Champs 2022 Australian Team list is:-

- a. Complete at least one CCI4*-S or CCN4*-S prior to 20 May 2022
- b. Veterinary examinations (as required by the Eventing Selection Panel)

The National Eventing Selectors will announce an unranked Oceania Squad of 12 rider/horse combinations on 20 April 2022. This squad will include 2 Teams of 4 team member combinations and 2 reserve combinations. The 2 reserve combinations will not be ranked and either or both combinations may be required to replace a selected team member(s). This decision will be at the discretion of the National Selectors.

All Oceania Team riders will receive the following support:-

- Event entry and stabling for the duration of the competition
- Administration support
- Team Uniform
- Coaching support, veterinary support and a Chef d'Equipe

All enquiries regarding the Australian Oceania Team and the Oceania Championships Competition should be directed to Dianne Saunders di.saunders@equestrian.org.au .
