

2022 Eventing Oceania Championships

Nominations for the Young Rider Teams Event

Expressions of interest are currently being sought from Australian-based Young Rider (FEI 503.1.3 – an Athlete may compete as a Young Rider from the beginning of the calendar year in which the Athlete reaches the age of 16 until the end of the calendar year in which the Athlete reaches the age of 21) combinations qualified to compete at CCI3*-L or above, to compete against New Zealand in the Oceania Team Championships at Melbourne, 9-13th June 2022. A team of 4 riders and horses plus 2 reserves will be selected for this competition.

Applications are to be submitted to Dianne Saunders di.saunders@equestrian.org.au in writing by completing the below form by 5pm Friday 8 April 2022.

A requirement for selection on the Oceania Champs 2022 Squad list is:-

- a. To be qualified to compete at CCI3*-L level
- b. Complete at least one CCI3*-S or CCN3*-S prior to 20 May 2022
- c. Veterinary examinations (as required by the National Eventing Selection Panel or NESP)

The National Eventing Selectors will announce an unranked YR Oceania Squad of 6 rider/horse combinations on 20th May 2022. This squad will include 4 team member combinations and 2 reserve combinations. The 2 reserve combinations will not be ranked and either or both combinations may be required to replace a selected team member(s). This decision will be at the discretion of the National Selectors.

All Oceania Team riders will receive the following support:-

- Event entry and stabling for the duration of the competition
- Team Uniform
- Administration support
- A Coach, Vet and Chef d'Equipe

All additional enquiries in regard to the Australian Young Rider Oceania Team and the Oceania Championships Competition should be directed to Dianne Saunders.

Applications close at 5pm, Friday 8 April 2022.
