

Animal Emergency Incident Management ANZ Inc.

Annual Conference

5-6 May 2023

Fire and Rescue NSW Emergency Services Academy Orchard Hills NSW

Theme: Not if, but when: preparing for your next animal emergency incident

Program highlights: scaling up from individual animal incidents to natural disasters, the role of vets on scene, racing and equestrian sports settings, plus practical sessions on incident management and rescue techniques including use of slings, lifts, bow-loaders.

Members $60 for 2 days/$30 per day

Non-members $99 flat rate. (incl. membership option)

<https://www.trybooking.com/CFVXZ>

Enquiries: Julie Fiedler animaleimanz@gmail.com
www.aeimanz.org/conferencemay2023

AEIMN ANZ is open to educators, instructors and other persons responsible for overseeing or delivering animal emergency incident management training in Australia and New Zealand. (incl vet schools). It is also open to people involved in policy, WHS, operations or training managers, governance or other decision-making roles.

AEIMN
Animal Emergency Incident Management Network
(Australia & New Zealand)