The following items were discussed at the meeting of the Equestrian Australian Carriage Driving Committee held on 14 June 2018.

Apology from Jackie Boyd. All other members attended with Vivienne Liogas acting as minute secretary.

Financial Carry Over Request – small surplus not spent and not able to be carried over to the next financial year.

National Discipline Appointment and Procedures Policy

Discussion to go to EA Board re amendment to Appointment Policy.

Officials Accreditation

Discussion re process of accreditation of officials and the general lack of events to give current and prospective officials the opportunity to maintain or gain accreditation.

Driving Australia Facebook Page

Discussion that proposed pathways should not be posted on Facebook until discussed and ratified by committee. Chair advised that Face Book group is to keep people up to date with things happening in the Carriage Driving world. The meeting was advised that the pathway suggested will take a few years to be put into place.

Pathways

The meeting was advised that many people had been consulted and have had input in the document but the question was asked where this has been recorded to keep record of input/updates to the document/proposal.

Late or Additional Business

Letter presented as a late item and Chairman to draft response.

Discussion of a sub-committee to write new tests.
