Other Relevant Information	I love horses and Dressage and I am interested in the further development of our sport by assisting our judges, new candidates and those upgrading with their journey.	I have a keen interest to promote Young riders and play an active role developing judge education.	I am passionate about dressage and dressage judge education and wish to see it develop. Honed organisational skills over many years in business and sport.	The sport of dressage has given me so much personally that I am now very passionate about encouraging and supporting riders and judges and contributing to the development of our sport in Australia.	I am keen in continuing to use my experience at national and international level to contribute to the development of dressage judges in Australia. It is vital for our sport to have well trained and respected judges.
