Passed Pursuant to the Constitution of the Company via circular resolution June 2026.

2. Introduction

In accordance with Article 34.1 of the Constitution, these By-Laws will apply to all categories of membership of Equestrian Australia (EA).

3. EA Membership

3.1 Membership of EA comprises of the following:

- Branches; and
- Participating Members

3.2 The Branches are:

- Equestrian New South Wales
- Equestrian Victoria
- Equestrian Queensland
- Equestrian South Australia
- Equestrian Western Australia
- Equestrian Tasmania
- Equestrian Northern Territory, subject to Rule 5.2 (h) of the EA Constitution.

and such further Branch or Branches as the Members may from time to time admit to membership.

3.3 In admitting a Branch to membership, the Members may apply special conditions relating to the payment of affiliation fees and the appointment of a Director, PROVIDED THAT special conditions are not to apply for a period in excess of five (5) years from the date of admission to the Branch.

4. Participating Members

The Participating Membership categories of the Branches and of EA must be comprised of the following:

4.1 Individual Members;

- 4.1.1 Competitor members; and
- 4.1.2 Supporter members; and
- 4.1.3 Participant members;
- 4.1.4 Recreational members; and
- 4.1.5 Horse Owner.

4.2 Group Affiliates;

- 4.2.1 Club Affiliates;
- 4.2.2 Sport Affiliates; and
- 4.2.3 Commercial Groups.

or any other membership category as determined by the EA Board from time to time.

4.3 Should Branches wish to create a membership category which is to be recognised as an EA membership outside of the categories listed in 4.1 and 4.2, it must be mapped back to a category as per 4.1 and 4.2.

4.4 Participating Member Definitions

4.4.1 The following definitions apply to the categories of membership set out in clause 4.1.

Competitor member means any person who participates and contributes to the competitive environment of equestrian sport, who has applied for and has been granted membership of a Branch and therefore of EA, and on behalf of whom the Branch pays the applicable membership fee to EA. Sub-categories of EA Competitor membership include:

- (a) Competitor member – Senior means any person eighteen (18) years and over who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Competitor Membership.
- (b) Competitor member – Junior means any person under the age of eighteen (18) years who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Competitor Membership. Junior members are able to attend and vote at General Meetings of the EA through their nominated parent or guardian as per rule 5.1 (b)(ii) of the EA Constitution.
- (c) Competitor member – Life means any person who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Competitor member at a discounted rate through a paid life membership.

Grandfather Provision for Competitor - Life Category:

- (i) Cessation of Category Availability: Effective 1 July 2026, the Competitor member – Life category shall no longer be available for new applications or purchases.
- (ii) Protection of Existing Members: Notwithstanding subclause (a) above, any person who holds a valid Competitor member – Life membership as at 1 July 2026 shall:
 - a. retain all rights, privileges, and benefits associated with their Competitor member – Life membership for the duration of their lifetime, subject to compliance with all other applicable EA rules and regulations;
 - b. continue to be entitled to all privileges set out in clause 4.4.1 applicable to Competitor members;
 - c. remain subject to all membership obligations, conduct requirements, and disciplinary provisions applicable to Competitor members under these Bylaws and EA regulations;
 - d. be entitled to a discounted membership, consistent with the original terms of their life membership.
- (iii) Non-Transferability: Competitor member – Life memberships protected under this grandfather provision are personal to the individual member and are not transferable, assignable, or inheritable.
- (iv) Termination Provisions: Competitor member – Life memberships protected under this grandfather provision may only be terminated in accordance with the termination provisions set out in clause 4 of these Bylaws.

4.4.2 Participant member means any person who actively participates and contributes to grassroots and recreational equestrian sports activities, who has applied for and has been granted membership of a Branch and, therefore, of EA, and on behalf of whom the Branch pays the applicable membership fee to EA. Sub-categories of EA Participant Membership include:

- (a) Participant member – Senior means any person eighteen (18) years and over who is entitled to the privileges of an EA Participant membership.
- (b) Participant member – Junior means any person under the age of eighteen (18) years who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Participant membership. Junior members are able to attend and vote at General Meetings of the EA through their nominated parent or guardian as per rule 5.1 (b)(ii) of the EA Constitution.

4.4.3 Recreational member means any person who enjoys horse riding and doing equestrian activities for pleasure, a non-competitive membership, who has applied for and has been granted membership of a Branch and, therefore, of EA, and on behalf of whom the Branch pays the applicable membership fee to EA. Sub-categories of EA Recreational Membership include:

- (a) Recreational member – Senior means any person eighteen (18) years and over who is entitled to the privileges of an EA Recreational membership.
- (b) Recreational member – Junior means any person under the age of eighteen (18) years who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Recreational membership. Junior members are able to attend and vote at General Meetings of the EA through their nominated parent or guardian as per rule 5.1 (b)(ii) of the EA Constitution.

4.4.4 Supporter member means any person who contributes to the competitive environment of equestrian sport but does not participate in competitions, who has applied for and has been granted membership of a Branch and therefore of EA, and on behalf of whom the Branch pays the applicable membership fee to EA. Subcategories of EA Supporter membership include:

- (a) Supporter member – Coach means any person who holds a current EA Coach Accreditation who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Supporter membership.
- (b) Supporter member – Officials means any person who holds a current EA Officials Accreditation who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Supporter membership.
- (c) Supporter member – Owner means any person who is listed as an owner of an EA Registered Horse who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Supporter membership.
- (d) Supporter member - Entity Horse Owner member means any group who is listed as an owner of an EA Registered Horse who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Entity Horse Owner membership.
- (e) Supporter member – Volunteer means any person who regularly contributes to equestrian sport through voluntary service and who is entitled to receive the privileges of a Supporter membership.

4.4.5 Club Affiliate means any equestrian club that supports membership and contributes to equestrian sport development that has applied for and has been granted affiliation with a Branch and therefore EA.

4.4.6 Sport Affiliate means any equestrian group that affiliates for the purpose of non-commercial equestrian sport delivery, which has applied for and has been granted affiliation with a Branch and, therefore, EA.

4.4.7 Commercial Group means any businesses or groups that align with EA to access EA services for a commercial benefit, who has applied for and have been granted affiliation with a Branch and therefore EA.

4.4.8 Honorary Life Memberships

EA State Branches may appoint or admit the following additional members:

- (a) Honorary Life Member (EA) – means any person upon whom the EA Board or State Board has resolved to confer honorary life membership for distinguished and exceptional service to EA, to one of the Branches or to equestrian sport in Australia. All Honorary Life Members of EA applications must be presented to the EA Board for approval. All Honorary Life Members of EA will not be required to pay any EA or State Branch fees.
- (b) Honorary Life Member (State Branches) – means any person upon whom the State Board has resolved to confer honorary life membership for distinguished and exceptional service to one of the Branches or to equestrian sport in their State. All Honorary Life Members of State Branches will be required to pay the EA portion of the administration fees and insurance levies, which are covered by the State Branch.

5. Membership Applications

5.1 A person or body seeking membership of EA may apply for membership only of the Branch in the State or Territory in which he or she resides,

PROVIDED THAT any person who:

- (i) resides within 100 km of a State or Territory border; and
- (ii) declares at the time of applying for membership that he or she intends to compete regularly in equestrian competitions or is a Board or Committee member in the neighbouring State or Territory, is eligible for membership of the Branch in that neighbouring State or Territory.

For the purposes of this clause, the following applies in accordance with rule 5.2(c) of the EA Constitution:

- (i) A resident of the Australian Capital Territory is deemed to be a resident of New South Wales. Therefore, the 100km rule in 2.6(a)(i) does not apply.

5.2 Members who cease to reside in Australia may, during their absence from Australia, retain membership of EA and of the Branch of which they were a member when they last resided in Australia.

5.3 Members moving from one State or Territory to another will retain their EA Membership and will not be obliged to pay membership fees until the next renewal in their new State or Territory.

5.4 All members of any Branch are considered admitted to EA in the same category upon the enactment of these rules.

6. Register of Members

6.1 All memberships of a State Branch are to be conducted using the EA National Database. The EA National Database is the register of members of all categories and residents in each State, along with their addresses and other details as required by EA.

7. Register of Horses

7.1 All Horse Registrations are to be conducted using the EA National Database. The EA National Database is the register of members' horses, along with their members' addresses and other details as required by EA.

7.2 The register of horses may comprise of;

7.2.1 Life Horse Registration means lifetime registration of a horse for the purposes of competition, including the recording of biosecurity information and the input of competition records for the respective Sport.

7.2.2 Base Horse Registration means lifetime registration of a horse not actively participating in competitive equestrian activity for purposes including biosecurity and microchip registration.

8. Supporter - Volunteer Membership Requirements

8.1 To be eligible for and maintain Supporter member – Volunteer status, a person must:

8.1.1 Volunteer Service Commitment: Complete a minimum volunteer service requirement annually of either:

- (i) Two (2) Major Events as defined by EA or the relevant Branch; OR
- (ii) Three (3) Club Events organised by EA-affiliated clubs;

8.1.2 Child Safety Requirements: Hold and maintain:

- (i) A current and valid Working With Children Card (or equivalent certification as required by the relevant State or Territory legislation); AND
- (ii) Current completion of EA-approved ChildSafe training or equivalent child protection training as determined by EA from time to time;

8.1.3 Ongoing Contribution: Demonstrate regular and ongoing contribution to equestrian activities as determined by the relevant Branch, which may include but is not limited to:

- (i) Event management support;
- (ii) Club committee participation;
- (iii) Coaching assistance;
- (iv) Equipment maintenance;
- (v) Administrative assistance;
- (vi) Grounds maintenance;
- (vii) Other voluntary services as recognised by the Branch.

8.2 Annual Verification Requirements:

8.2.1 Supporter member – Volunteer status shall be subject to annual verification by the relevant Branch;

8.2.2 The Branch may require documentary evidence of:

- (i) Completion of required volunteer service hours;
- (ii) Current valid Working With Children Card, or equivalent;
- (iii) Current completion of ChildSafe training requirements;

8.2.3 Failure to meet or maintain any requirement under clause 8.1 may result in:

- (i) Suspension of volunteer membership privileges;
- (ii) Requirement to transition to another appropriate membership category;
- (iii) Termination of membership in accordance with clause 4.

8.3 Addresses for Service of Notices

The address for service of notice to any member must be recorded in the records of the relevant Branch as part of the National Database of EA.

9. Termination of Membership

9.1 Individual Members will cease to be members of EA and their Branch:

- 9.1.1 if they resign in writing to EA or the Branch
- 9.1.2 if they die
- 9.1.3 if they are declared incapable of managing their own affairs
- 9.1.4 if, in the opinion of EA or the relevant Branch, they fail or omit to observe or perform any of the provisions of the rules of EA or the Branch on their part to be observed and performed or if they are called upon to resign by their Branch and in this respect the Branch shall not be required to assign any reason or to justify its action in calling upon a member to resign. However, no Branch will take any such action without having given the member an opportunity to be heard and ensure that the rules of natural justice are observed; or
- 9.1.5 if they fail to pay the annual subscription for a period of thirty (30) days after it becomes due.

9.2 Group Affiliate members will cease to be Group Affiliate members:

- 9.2.1 if they resign in writing to the Branch
- 9.2.2 if the relevant Branch, after having given the Affiliate Member an opportunity of being heard, is of the opinion that its constitution, objects or activities deprive it of its eligibility as an Affiliate Member
- 9.2.3 if they are dissolved
- 9.2.4 if they fail to pay their annual subscription for a period of thirty (30) days after it becomes due
- 9.2.5 if they conduct competitions contrary to the rules of EA; or
- 9.2.6 If they do not hold a current insurance policy, including public liability cover which meets the specific requirements set by the respective Branch from time to time.
