

EVENTING AUSTRALIA

REFUND POLICY

1. Refunds can only be negotiated through the Organising Committee for each competition, special circumstances may be dealt with on a case by case basis with the OC
2. Withdrawal of entries prior to the advertised original close of entries date will be refunded with no more than 20% deducted as an administration fee. Entries means entry fee only, NOT stabling, start fee, ground fees.
3. Rider Start Fee must be refunded in full if a rider does not start the dressage phase. No deductions from this fee.
4. There will be no refund of entries for withdrawals after the originally published close of entries date unless there are entries on a waiting list, for the same level as the withdrawal, in which case the entry will be refunded less a 20% administration fee.
5. Entries that do not meet Minimum Entry Requirements (MER) will be offered an entry in a level appropriate to the horse & riders MER status. If no appropriate level is available the entry may be refunded less 50% administration fee.
6. Entries that do not meet the required Registrations, both EA and FEI, will be offered an entry in a class appropriate to the horse & riders registrations. There will be no refund of entry fees or difference in fees for level/class.
 - a. Entries without appropriate EA membership and EA horse registration may be subject to penalties listed under 'Strict Liability Offences and Penalties' in the Disciplinary By-Laws of Equestrian Australia.
 - b. Entries to FEI events without FEI horse and rider, registration will not be accepted by the FEI entry system.
7. All withdrawals must be made by 4.00 pm on the day preceding the start of any phase of the event or as stated in the schedule. Athletes who do not declare their intention to withdraw may have their names forwarded to the State Eventing Committee. This is a common courtesy to the Organising Committee.

Substitutions

8. Any substitution of an entry, involving a horse or rider, after close of entries will be subject to a $50 fee, per change, and is at the discretion on the Organising Committee.
