Your Declaration

Equestrian Australia Limited (EA) is the Australian national sports organisation for the sport of equestrianism, in each of its specific disciplines and variations (together, the Sport).

EA, its Branches (as defined in EA's Constitution), and its affiliated organisations each have a duty of care that is owed to their respective members, people associated with the Sport, and to the people and organisations that participate in the Sport conducted under the encouragement, promotion, organisation, administration and control of EA and its Branches and affiliated organisations.

In accordance with the procedures set out in the Constitution, EA has adopted various rules, regulations, by-laws and policies (together the EA Policies) for the purpose of EA pursuing its objectives stated in the Constitution.

One of the EA Policies is EA's Child Safeguarding Policy, which commenced into force on 17 December 2021 and which is adopted by EA as part of EA's National Integrity Framework. Any reference in this declaration to the Child Safeguarding Policy is a reference to that document which came into force on 17 December 2023, as amended from time to time thereafter.

In accordance with its duty of care, and as required by its Child Safeguarding Policy, EA must investigate and collect information, in relation to any person who makes application for registration as an EA Official. EA requires the submission of this declaration as part of its investigation and information-gathering process.

A person cannot be, and will not be registered as an EA Official, unless the person is a current Member of EA.

Any person who is a current EA Member, and who wishes to be registered by EA as an EA Official must make and complete the following declaration, in addition to the other requirements set out in the EA Policies governing the registration of EA Officials.

NOTE: Any declaration submitted by any person, which is purported to be made by a person with any mark, deletion, addition to, obliteration of, or amendment to any of the below paragraphs [1] to [13] shall be deemed by EA to be a declaration which is void ab initio for all purposes. In any event or circumstances where a person cannot truthfully make the declaration in the format required by this document, the person must contact EA's Integrity Unit to further discuss the matter.

I solemnly and sincerely declare that each of the following statements is true and factual as at the date that this Officials Declaration is dated and made by me:

5. I have never had any disciplinary or similar proceedings brought against me by any employer, former employer, sporting organisation or similar body, involving child abuse; sexual misconduct; sexual harassment (which for the avoidance of doubt has the same meaning as given to the term by EA's Member Protection Policy, where the term sexual harassment is defined to mean and include conduct which is any unwanted or unwelcome sexual behaviour, where a reasonable person would anticipate the possibility that the person being harassed would feel offended, humiliated or intimidated); harassment; acts of violence; intimidation; bullying or other similar forms of harassment.
6. I have never been sanctioned for an Anti-Doping Rule Violation (within the meaning given to that term by the World Anti-Doping Code) within the Sport, or any other sport.
7. I have never participated in, facilitated or encouraged any practice, behaviour or conduct prohibited by the World Anti-Doping Code or any other anti-doping policy or similar policy applicable to me, including the EA Anti-Doping Policy and the FEI Equine Anti-Doping and Controlled Medication Rules adopted by EA and amended from time to time.
8. I have never been sanctioned for any breach of the FEI Equine Anti-Doping and Controlled Medication Rules or any other rules in force in any sport in Australia or elsewhere, relating to animal doping or the medication of and control of medication given to animals.

9. I have never, in any jurisdiction in Australia or elsewhere, been charged with or convicted of any criminal, disciplinary, sporting or animal racing-related offence relating to animal cruelty, whether in relation to a horse or any other animal or creature.
10. To the best of my knowledge after due inquiry, there are no other facts, matters or circumstances relevant to me, that EA (if it were aware of those facts, matters and circumstances) may reasonably consider to constitute a risk to, its Branches' and its affiliated organisations' respective members, people associated with the Sport, and to the people and organisations that participate in the Sport under the encouragement, promotion, organisation, administration and control of EA and its Branches and affiliated organisations.
11. I will immediately notify the chief executive officer of EA and each Branch(es) and affiliated organisation(s) engaging me, upon me becoming aware of any facts, matters or circumstances meaning that any of the matters declared by me and set out in clauses [1] to [10] above (inclusive) have changed for whatever reason, so that the declaration made by me is no longer true and correct either wholly or to any extent.
12. I acknowledge that I have read and agree to abide by the EA Code of Conduct for Officials. I acknowledge I may be subject to disciplinary action if I breach the code. (Code of Conduct is available to view via www.equestrian.org.au).

The FEI Code of Conduct for the Welfare of the Horse

1. The Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI) expects all those involved in international equestrian sport to adhere to the FEI's Code of Conduct and to acknowledge and accept that at all times the welfare of the horse must be paramount and must never be subordinated to competitive or commercial influences.
2. At all stages during the preparation and training of competition horses, welfare must take precedence over all other demands. This includes good horse management, training methods, farriery and tack, and transportation.
3. Horses and competitors must be fit, competent and in good health before they are allowed to compete. This encompasses medication use, surgical procedures that threaten welfare or safety, pregnancy in mares and the misuse of aids.
4. Events must not prejudice horse welfare. This involves paying careful attention to the competition areas, ground surfaces, weather conditions, stabling, site safety and fitness of the horse for onward travel after the event.
5. Every effort must be made to ensure that horses receive proper attention after they have competed and that they are treated humanely when their competition careers are over. This covers proper veterinary care, competition injuries, euthanasia and retirement.

The FEI urges all involved with the sport to attain the highest levels of education in their areas of expertise.

A full version of the FEI Code of Conduct is contained in the Dressage Rule book – refer to rule 1.2 or can be found at: <http://www.fei.org/about-us/standards>

EA CODE OF CONDUCT FOR OFFICIALS

In addition to the EA General Code of Conduct, any person appointed by EA (or its affiliates) as an official must meet the following requirements regarding their conduct and behaviour in any way relating to the sport of equestrian (including without limitation during or in respect of any activity held or sanctioned by EA, or as part of any role as an official appointed by EA or its affiliates):

- act impartially.
- place the safety and welfare of the athletes/participants above all else
- be aware of and abide by the principles of the FEI Code of Conduct for the Welfare of the Horse.
- be fair, equitable, considerate and honest in all dealings.
- accept responsibility for all actions taken.
- be professional in all actions. Language, presentation, manner and punctuality should reflect high standards.
- do not accept or participate in any form of bribery or corruption.
- avoid any situation which may lead to a conflict of interest.
- be courteous, respectful and open to discussion and interaction.
- maintain or improve their current performance level and seek continual improvement.
- seek to preserve and protect the standing and reputation of EA and its affiliates.

Note: All EA's Code of Conduct can be found at - <http://www.equestrian.org.au/policies>

As in all equestrian sports, judges must:

- make their decisions having regard for the welfare of the horse above the interests of any others involved
- have an open and friendly attitude towards all competitors while being careful not to show familiarity towards those competing
- be aware that they are responsible for setting and maintaining the image and standards of dressage both in the competition arena and away from it and that, as an ambassador for dressage, they should conduct themselves with dignity, honesty and good manners, especially in difficult situations
- treat requests from competitors to explain their decisions as an opportunity to assist the competitor to improve their performance
- honour a commitment to judge and if unforeseen circumstances prevent this, endeavour to help the organisers to find a replacement
- maintain an objective and fair mind towards all competitors which includes:
 - not taking into account anything known about riders, horses or past performances
 - guarding against conflicts of interest and avoiding judging in situations in which they have a close personal or professional relationship with a competitor or owner
 - ensure to the best of their ability that the same conditions apply to all competitors
 - know and understand the scale of marks and ensure that their comments and marks are related
- maintain the same standard for all competitors within a competition and at all events
- be in possession of a current Dressage Rule Book together with any amendments
- know the rules and be prepared to co-ordinate their personal opinion with the principles of the FEI and the EA
- aim to have a thorough knowledge of the correct training of the dressage horse and understand the requirements of the test they are to judge

WHAT MAKES A GOOD JUDGE?

As a judge you have to be:

- highly organised, yet flexible.
- able to focus, make decisions quickly
- be confident of the training you have received and knowledge you have acquired as a judge
- to recognise and acknowledge mistakes you may make whilst judging
- be able to diffuse a volatile situation

As a judge you must possess diplomacy, tact and common sense.

- You are part of a team and if you are the Chief Judge (positioned at C), you have to lead that team for that competition
- You must be approachable by riders and coaches
- You must also act professionally in relation to your judging

As a judge, you most probably have a greater impact on the sport than riding coaches!

As a judge you must be able to perform the three S's:

See

Say

Score

DEMANDS REQUIRED OF A DRESSAGE JUDGE

As a judge you must train yourself to have the following qualities:

- absolute objectivity and impartiality, free of personal bias/opinion, but be humble and sympathetic
- the ability to see; be able to distinguish and to compare performances consistently from the first to the last horse in a competition, finding the correct rankings in giving the marks

Today, when competitions last much longer than in the past, it is important for the judges to be:

- mentally alert to be able to concentrate for long periods of time.
- physically fit; and
- be able to be consistent and fair from the beginning to the end of the competition

The judge must have a thorough knowledge of dressage theory as well as practical dressage training. The Training Scale underpins all that we do when judging.

Judges must be able to recognise BASIC QUALITIES and, therefore, MAIN FAULTS that originate from an incorrect training program. They should be able to differentiate between faults due to momentary unfitness or a careless mistake. They should, be able to distinguish the difference between significant and insignificant faults.

It is very helpful if a dressage judge has trained horses themselves and taken part as a competitor. This increases a judge's empathy and understanding and may help to guide a rider so that future problems can be avoided.

OBJECT OF DRESSAGE

(Refer to Rule 2.1)

The object of dressage is the harmonious development of the physique and ability of the horse. As a result, it makes the horse calm; supple; loose and flexible, but also confident; attentive and keen, thus achieving perfect understanding with the rider.

These qualities are revealed by:

- (a) the freedom and regularity of the paces
- (b) the harmony, lightness and ease of the movements
- (c) the lightness of the forehand and the engagement of the hindquarters, originating in a lively impulsion
- (d) the acceptance of the bridle, with submissiveness throughout, and without any tension or resistance

The horse thus gives the impression of doing of their own accord what is required of them. Confidently and attentively, they submit generously to the control of the rider, remaining absolutely straight in any movement on a straight line and bending accordingly when moving on curved lines.

The walk is regular; free and unconstrained. The trot is free, supple, regular, sustained and active. The canter is united, light and cadenced. The hindquarters are never inactive or sluggish, and they respond to the slightest indication of the rider, giving more life and spirit to the whole body.

In all the work, even at the halt, the horse must be 'on the bit'. A horse is said to be on the bit when the neck is more or less raised and arched ACCORDING TO THE STAGE OF TRAINING AND THE EXTENSIONS OR COLLECTION OF THE PACE, and they accept the bridle with a light and soft contact and submissiveness contact. The head should remain in a steady position, slightly in front of the vertical, with a supple poll at the highest point of the neck, and no resistance should be offered to the rider.

Cadence is shown in trot and canter and is the result of the proper harmony that a horse shows when it moves with well-marked regularity, impulsion and balance. Cadence must be maintained in all the different trot and canter exercises and in all the variations of these paces.

The regularity of the paces is fundamental to dressage.

In these rules, it is stated how the various exercises must be executed and what is important in each movement. Therefore, each judge MUST have a copy of the rules and carefully study them.
