HOW DO I BECOME A VAULTING JUDGE?

Thank you for your enquiry regarding the steps involved in becoming a Vaulting Judge.

Good education is the basis for good officiating. EA's aim through the education system is to collaborate with experts within the discipline to offer officials opportunities for both promotion and the maintenance of status.

WHAT MAKES A GOOD OFFICIAL?

As an official you must be highly organised, yet flexible. You must be able to focus, make decisions quickly and be confident of the training you have received and knowledge you have acquired as an official. You must possess diplomacy, tact and a sense of humour. You have to be able to recognise and acknowledge mistakes you may make whilst officiating and also be able to diffuse a volatile situation.

You are part of a team (Ground Jury) and may have to lead that team (President of the Ground Jury). You must be approachable and be able to liaise well with the Organising Committee, other officials, vaulters and coaches. You must also act professionally in relation to your officiating.

As an official you must be consistent and fair and have a thorough knowledge of Vaulting rules and their application.

It is important for officials to be:

- physically fit
- be able to be consistent and fair from the beginning to the end of the competition
- Mentally alert and able to concentrate for long periods of time

The officials must have a thorough knowledge of vaulting rules as well as practical official training.

Pathway for Vaulting Judges

EA members applying for accreditation or promotion as a Vaulting Official must direct their application to the National Vaulting Judge Assessors. vaultingjudgesaustralia@gmail.com

The National Vaulting Judge Assessors (NVJA) are responsible for the verification of all Judges. NVJA will forward their endorsement to the EA National Office.

Financial members of the EA, who are interested in becoming a Vaulting Judge, must complete and submit the appropriate application forms detailing their experience according to the criteria for promotion and maintenance on the following pages.

Upon satisfactory completion of the requirements of each level, you will be accredited as a Vaulting Judge and added to the National database.

Accredited official benefits include insurance cover at EA events, EA support, officials badge, qualified mentors, available ongoing education, name and contact details on websearch and news. Each official will also receive a letter, certificate and badge from Equestrian Australia verifying their accreditation.

In order to remain accredited on the national officials list you must attend update clinics (one every three years) and meet stipulated reaccreditation requirements as set by EA. Further information on this can be found on the EA website and will be sent when accredited as an official.

EA Vaulting Rules include up to date information on the current compliance for those participating in Vaulting Competitions, as well as information about the EA Accreditation Scheme. These rules may be updated on only two occasions per year, in January and July and thus should be constantly referenced. As an Official, you must be consistent and fair and have a thorough knowledge of the Vaulting rules and their application.

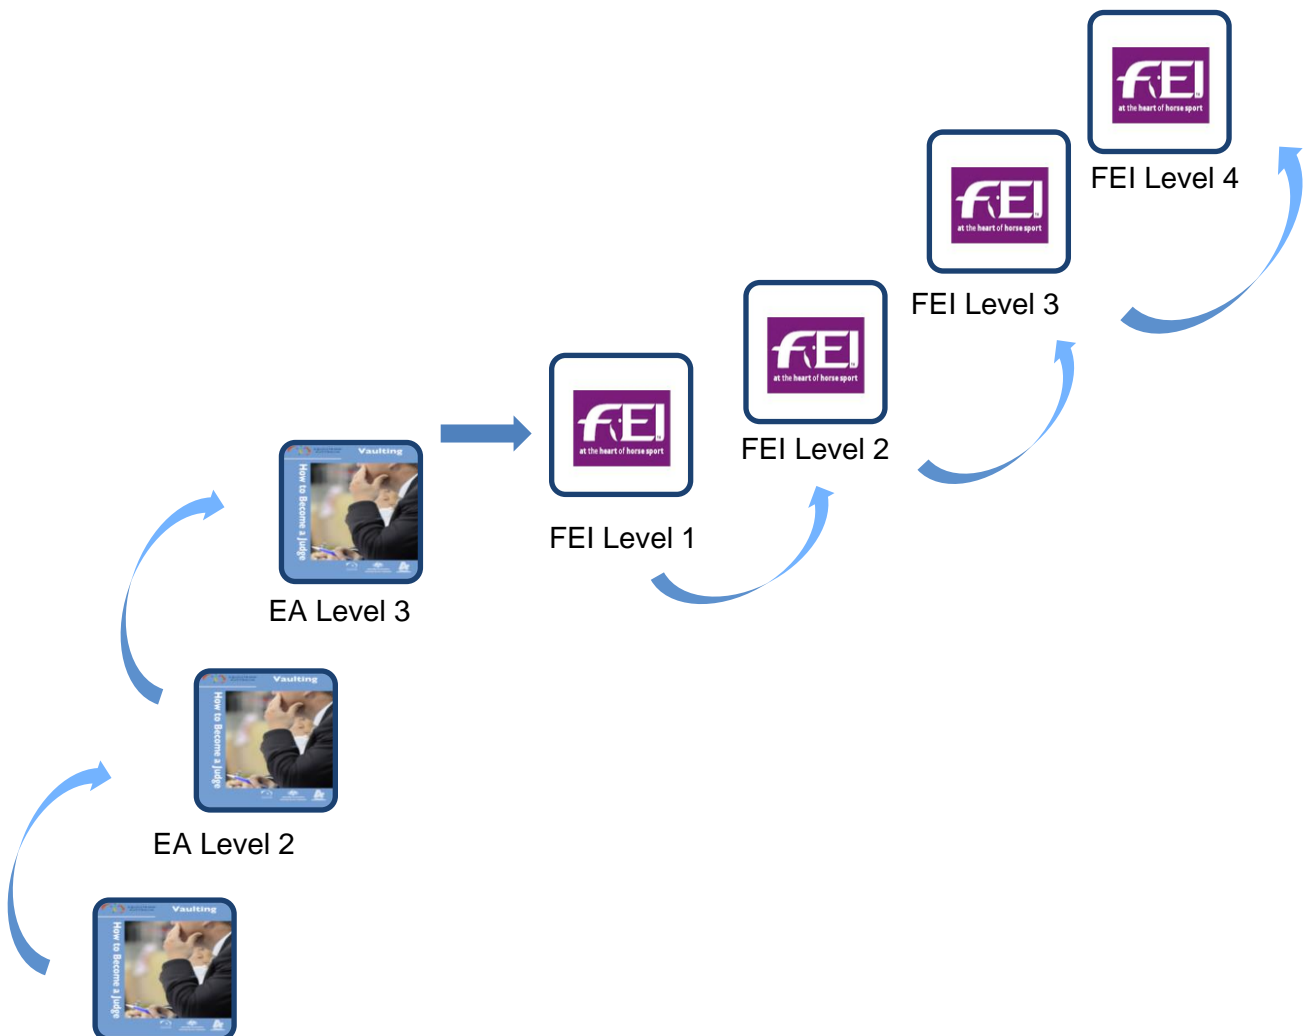

The rulebook may be obtained by the following methods:

Electronic (free of charge):

- downloaded from the EA website at www.equestrian.org.au

Printed and bound (for purchase from EA National Office):

- Downloaded the order form from the EA website www.equestrian.org.au/forms
- Send order form to the National office, PO Box 673, Sydney Markets, NSW, 2129

I will immediately notify the chief executive officer of EA and each Branch(es) and affiliated organisation(s) engaging me, upon me becoming aware of any facts, matters or circumstances meaning that any of the matters declared by me and set out in clauses [1] to [10] above (inclusive) have changed for whatever reason, so that the declaration made by me is no longer true and correct either wholly or to any extent. 12.
