

FEI WBFSH Dressage World Breeding Championships for Young Horses

Ermelo (NED) 4-8 September 2024

Dressage Selection Criteria

Below is an outline of the criteria for the selection of the Australian representatives to attend the FEI WBFSH Dressage World Breeding Championships for Young Horses.

1. General Criteria

Riders must first comply with the current rules laid down in the EA National Dressage Rules —Item 9.6 and regarding the FEI WBFSH Dressage World Breeding Championship for Young Horses Guidelines, as follows:

9.6 Selection of Young Horses to Represent Australia Overseas (2024)

The EA National Dressage Selectors will select the Australian representatives for the FEI WBFSH Dressage World Breeding Championship for Young Horses Rules based on merit and with reference to any EA Selection Policy and in addition, to the rules of the FEI in cooperation with the World Breeding Federation for Sport Horses (WBFSH).

Only horses registered into WBFSH member studbooks at birth can be nominated and entered in the championships.

For five and six-year-old young horses to be considered for endorsement to the FEI World Breeding Championships for Young Dressage Horses, they must have a minimum of 1 performance of at least 80% at the national selection procedure event (Australian based horses) or a CDI-YH (overseas based horses) with at least 7.5 for each pace.

For seven-year-old young horses to be considered for endorsement they must have a minimum of 1 performance of at least 70%, at the national selection procedure event (Australian based horses) or a CDI-YH (overseas based horses)

- a) For Australian based horses, results from the designated national selection procedure event as per the FEI WBFSH Dressage World Breeding Championship for Young Horses Rules only will be considered. The national selection procedure event is the Australian Young Dressage Horse Championships.
- b) For horses based overseas, scores must be obtained at a CDI-YH event.
- c) Only home-bred horses registered into WBFSH member studbooks at birth with a UELN (Unique Equine Life Number) can be nominated and entered in the championship (ref: FEI WBFSH Dressage World Breeding Championship For Young Horses Rules.)

Competition results, including a link to the results section of the event website and the judging sheets (complete with date, venue and names & signatures of judges) must be forwarded to the EA National Office as proof of performances.

If selected to represent Australia, horses and riders are required to be FEI registered and horses must hold a valid FEI Passport or FEI Recognition Card.

2. Determination of Places

In 2024, Equestrian Australia is allocated one (1) place in each of the five, six and seven-year-old classes at the FEI WBFSH Dressage World Breeding Championship for Young Horses.

Therefore, the three (3) places will be issued to those combinations that the Dressage selectors deem to be the most competitive and the most likely to advance Australian Dressage.

3. Timing

Those combinations interested in applying for a position at this competition must adhere to the following timeline:

If an athlete has an interest in campaigning a young horse for the FEI WBFSH Dressage World Breeding Championships for Young Horses Equestrian Australia would appreciate non-binding advice of your competition plans, by 30 April 2024.

Australian based combinations

Expressions of Interest along with relevant competition results and copies of the test sheets must be sent to the EA national office, no later than 30 June 2024.

Combinations not domiciled in Australia

Expressions of Interest must include relevant competition results and test sheets, and a video link of the qualifying performance. This must be sent to the EA National office no later than 31 July 2024.

Expression of Interest forms will be available on the EA website. All details, including the

- WBFSH member studbook and registration number
- UELN (Unique Equine Life Number) must be supplied in the EOI.

A decision regarding the Nominated Entries will be made by the EA National Dressage Selectors no later than 5 August 2024 and all combinations who have applied will be notified.
